

BRØNDBY IF IS LOOKING FOR A HEAD OF WOMEN'S FOOTBALL

At Brøndby IF, we're not just a professional football organization with a rich club history; we're a community driven by our core values of excellence, teamwork and inclusivity. While women's football has long been a part of Brøndby IF's legacy, we're thrilled to officially integrate women's football into our professional organization starting from the 24/25 season.

To lead this exciting new chapter, we're seeking a dynamic and visionary Head of Women's Football to join our team starting as soon as possible.

As the Head of Women's Football, you will spearhead the football strategy, technical & tactical development, coordination, and execution of the women's football program at Brøndby IF, driving progress both on and off the field. Working closely with various departments within Brøndby IF, as well as stakeholders, players, and technical staff, you'll play a pivotal role in professionalizing our women's department.

Key areas of work for this role include

- Develop and implement a long-term strategic vision for women's football at Brøndby IF, aligning footballing and business objectives
- Responsible for the technical/tactical development of the women
- Management, coordination and execution of the women's football program
- Collaborate with coaching staff to enhance team performance, game development and tactical strategies
- Offer support and feedback to coaching staff in developing training methodologies, tactics, and playing style consistent with the club's philosophy
- Initiate and implement a comprehensive player development program
- Lead recruitment efforts to strengthen the squad
- Manage the women's football budget

Your qualifications and capabilities

- Experience in business administration, Sports Management, etc.
- Experience in football club management, coaching, or player development, preferably in leadership roles
- Experience in both footballing and business aspects of club management is preferred
- Strong leadership, communication, and negotiation skills
- Ability to multitask, prioritize responsibilities, and work effectively under pressure
- Passion for football and a commitment to the club's mission and values
- UEFA A Coaching License or equivalent certification preferred
- Knowledge of (worked with) performance analysis tools and technologies

What we offer

- Attractive salary package
- A challenging and dynamic role within a professional football club
- The opportunity to play a significant role in the growth and development of women's football at Brøndby IF

Workplace

Your workplace will be at Brøndby Stadium and you will refer to the CEO of Brøndby IF.

Contact

For inquiries regarding the position, you can contact:

Peder Siggaard
psg@brondby.com

Application

Apply with CV via this link.